SEPTEMBER 20, 1912, NORWAY, MAINE.

Norway Municipal Court.

Wm. F. Jones, Judge.

J. E. March of South Paris was brought before Judge Jones, Tuesday morning, on complaint of Harry D. Cole for operating an automobile without being registered. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs of $6.11. Mr. March was represented by Hon. Alton C. Wheeler of South Paris.

Algonquin Club Notes.

Because of the helpful interest shown in the activities of the Algonquin Club, by the citizens of Norway, it has been possible for the club to establish itself on a firm basis, a basis which holds out a promise of the fulfillment of its purpose.

Article II of the constitution of the Algonquin club embodies the purpose of the club as follows:—"The purpose of this club shall be to provide opportunities for its members to play tennis, and to promote the interests of tennis and other wholesome outdoor sports in this town."

The club was organized July 16, 1912, with a membership of 22, and at its last meeting held Sept. 6, had a full membership of 30 with 9 names accepted on the waiting list. The club had paid for its tennis court, located on Park St., by means of the club dues and the proceeds of two entertainments, a Pop concert held Aug. 14, and a Society circus held Aug. 27, both of which entertainments were sadly handicapped by the weather.

The results of the club's efforts are perhaps best shown by the treasurer's statement of Sept. 6, which is as follows:

Club members' dues.....$ 77.50
Pop concert.....105.41
Society circus.....110.41
Court assessment fine.....25
Total receipts.....$298.62

Expenditures.....$120.39
Tennis court.....79.88
Pop concert.....64.89
Miscellaneous expenses.....11.10
Total expenditures.....$276.06

Showing a deficit of.....$34.41
All bills are paid to date with the exception of the land lease for court. The treasurer keeps all bills on file and open to inspection of club members.

Came from Four Different States.
A very pleasant family gathering took place last week at the home of Orrington M. Cummings on Danforth street, when he entertained four of his nephews, namely D. C. Knight of Galesburg, Ill., A. M. Knight of New York City, Alva A. Knight of Lodi, Mich., and Wesley O. Knight of Geneva, Iowa.

This is the first reunion of the brothers which has taken place in fifty years. These brothers are the sons of Isaac F. and Sarah (Cummings) Knight and were all born in nearby towns.

D. C. Knight was born in West Paris 67 years ago, A. M. Knight was born in Greenwood 69 years ago, Wesley K. was born in Woodstock 67 years ago, and Alva A. in Look's Mills 60 years ago. While here they have visited their birthplaces and called on relatives in this vicinity, and also sat for a group picture. D. C. Knight was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Edith; Alva by his son.

Isaac F. Knight, the father of these boys, was a blacksmith by trade. Mrs. Frank W. Fanning is ill with neuritis. Geneva Sturtevant has returned to Bates College, Lewiston.

Folsom-Smiley.
A business combine of no little note to Portland, was finally effected when F. D. Folsom and Thomas Smiley formed what will be known as the Folsom-Smiley Co., organized to carry on the business formerly conducted at 500 Congress street, Portland, by the F. D. Folsom Co. The capital stock of the new firm will be double that of the former company, and the new officers are Frank D. Folsom, president; Thomas Smiley, treasurer; and B. L. Farrar of El Paso, Texas, vice president. No new building will be erected at present by the new company, and the Smiley store at 503 Congress, will probably be eventually closed, though for the present it will belong to and be run by the new company.

Cameron of the old F. D. Folsom Co., has retired voluntarily, selling his interests to Mr. Smiley, and will probably go into business in some city outside of Portland. Mr. Folsom came to this city from Dover, about 14 years ago, and started business in a small way on the site where he has ever since been situated. By enterprise and sound management he has made his business double and triple itself, and the new firm will occupy more space than ever.

Mr. Smiley, who has been successful at the Smiley fancy goods store established in Portland as one of a string that now comprise six situated in different parts of the State. He came to Portland about 10 years ago. The vice president, B. L. Farrar of El Paso, Texas, is a mine owner and will not be actively associated with the business at all. The Folsom store comprises two stores and a basement, and has done a large business from the moment of its opening.

George Newcomb of Bridgton bought the Whitney stand at Norway, Lewiston, the recent auction, paying for it $1175.75. This is the Frank Bradbury place. Co. D. N. G. S. M., held a field day, Sunday, Sept. 15th, at the rifle range by the river. Orders were issued Sept. 10, requesting all the members of the company to be present. Genevieve Barker, Hubert Barker and Marjory Barker left Wednesday to attend Colby College. Francis Sweet, Donald Partridge and Donald Bartlett went Tuesday to Lewiston to attend Bates College.

The Dennis Pike Real Estate Agency has negotiated the sale of the E. Barnett stand on Gary street, South Paris, to Charles L. Dow of West Poland for $10,000. Algonquin club gave a Pow-wow, held by the executive board, at the home of Bertha and Jennie Mann, Wednesday evening. A business meeting was followed by games and refreshments. A cement sidewalk is being laid on Bridge street from the corner of John street by C. A. Richardson's meat market, to the road by Arthur Miller's blacksmith shop, which goes to the Cummings mill. George Wood and crew dug out the walk for the foundation and A. W. Walker & Son of South Paris are putting in the walk.

During the past week Murdoch Bros. have been holding a test show on the lot by Nash's taxidermy shop. The test show has attracted good crowds at each evening, and consists of vaudeville acts, singing, orchestra concerts, farces and tight rope walking. The company came on a private living car, which remained at the depot during their stay here. In repairing the house just above the Advertiser office a cupboard was found written on with red chalk, "This cupboard put on Nov. 2, 1855." Watson skip with fever. L. Hathaway. Without doubt the Watson referred to was Ceylon Watson, who formerly owned this house and lived here with his family. The L. Hathaway, who wrote the note, was a contractor and builder, Charles L. and George F. Hathaway's father. This makes the ell of the house from which the cupboard was taken 57 years old, if it was built at that time.

Appellate Fair, held at the home of Percy Nevers, Jr., proved a fine success. Signs were posted in the postoffice announcing the fair and many inquiries were made as to where the fair was to take place, one man even went as far as to inquire about getting an auto, thinking the fair was at Otisfield. The young people had a fine time holding the fair. Boys were blocked as dorkies, small ones stuffed to represent fat men. The tents were pitched under the apple trees on the lawn. During the afternoon Roland Andrews and the Nevers boys made flights in their airship. The airship was a good representation of a biplane set on baby carriage wheels, but made flight close to the ground.

The Fisherman.

His rods and lines he kept with care; All broken pieces he'd repair. He'd fish for bass and shiner trout. He'd hardly time to eat or drink. But on a dulling evening, he'd bring From early morn till close of day, This fisher with rod and line went through life, With never time to take a wife, Till Father Time began to tease, His lines upon the angle's face; And silver threads showed here and there Upon his locks of dark brown hair; As if the hair had been forgot.

And when at last death's angel came Looking for him, and called his name, He found him by the babbling brook With his beloved line and hook. And when he heard his time was nigh, That he must now prepare to die, He answered as he turned about, "Just let me catch another trout."

Then packing up his line and hooks, His basket, rod and wading boots, Each one in its proper place, A thoughtful look came into his face, And he said to the angel in a stream beside, He sadly laid him down and died, But murmured his good in heaven, "I hope the fishing's good in heaven."

Children's Column.

Bethel, Sept. 2, 1912. Dear Editor:—I am much interested in the Children's Corner and hope to see my letter in this week's ADVERTISER. It describes a trip to a mountain called the great Bald mountain. You can see several small but picturesque villages from the top of the mountain, such as Hanover, Andover, Locke's Mills and Bethel. Several small bodies of water are in sight.

The journey up the mountain was long and tedious and in many places dangerous in fact for the mountain is perpendicular in a great many places. It is a great deal of fun to roll rocks down the mountain side and I hope some of the readers will take the trip some day.

Yours sincerely, B. T. H.

WEST PARIS.

Mrs. Frank Dunham has been sick.

Mrs. Will Morse has moved to Locke's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mann, Mrs. H. R. Teall and Mrs. Cynthia Curtis left here Friday morning, the 6th, for a trip to Phillips, Rangeley, Farmington and other places, and returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammond from Stratford, N. H., have visited Mrs. Hammond's brother, Linn and Chase. Briggs.

Mr. Hammond is a good deal improved in health since he was here last summer.

Elden Stearns has sold his farm on Stearns Hill and has bought the Alley place near Trap Corner. Mr. Turpel and family, who have been living there, are going to move into C. P. Dunham's rent over his store.

The cement sidewalk by C. F. Barden's has been finished, which completes the cement sidewalk all the way from the post office by Dr. Wheeler's residence, a distance of 50 rods or more, which makes the street very convenient and pretty.

George Robinson has sold his farm on Stearns Hill and is going to move into the old creamery building, where he had a rent. Quished off last spring. James Lapham and family, who have been living there, are going to move into Mrs. Mooney's third story rent at the Willows.

Famous Naval Victory.

Tuesday, Sept. 10, was the 98th anniversary of the most famous naval victory ever won by a United States Naval force. It was the battle of Lake Erie in which Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry gained immortal fame for his bravery and tactical skill. A fine old song in commemoration of that victory commences as follows:

"Tars of Columbia, give ear to my story; Who fought with brave Perry where cannons did roar; Your valor has gained you an immortal glory, A fame that shall last till time is no more.

Columbian tars are the true sons of Mars, They raise fore and aft when they fight on the deep; On the bed of Lake Erie, commanded by Perry, They caused many Britons to take their last sleep."

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Oxford and Cumberland Breeders' Association.
The annual meeting of the Oxford and Cumberland Jersey Breeders' Association was held at the farm of C. S. Hamlin, South Waterford on Friday, Aug. 27. The morning hour was spent in looking over the stock and in discussing various matters pertaining to the breeding and raising of pure bred Jersey cattle. At noon a picnic dinner was served in the dining room.
In the afternoon the meeting was called to order with Pres. H. W. Evans of North Bridgton in chair. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Proceeded to election of officers with the following result:
Pres.—H. W. Evans, North Bridgton.
V. Pres.—W. F. Fiske, Waterford; C. W. Farrington, Fryeburg; V. E. Dunn, Norway; A. L. Sanderson, Harrison; C. O. Smith, Bridgton; L. E. Cobb, Denmark.
Sec. Treas.—C. S. Hamlin, Harrison; R. F. D. King, Com.—W. W. Abbott, H. B. Eastman and V. E. Dunn.
Then followed the annual address by the president of the association, subject, What can we do to improve the Jersey breed? After which the subject was discussed in an able manner by C. W. Farrington, W. W. Abbott, F. C. Shaw, Wilson Morse, H. W. Evans, V. E. Dunn, H. B. Eastman, E. K. Kilgore and George Kimball.
Voted to hold the next meeting at the home of C. W. Farrington in Fryeburg on Nov. 6.
A vote of thanks was extended to C. S. Hamlin and family for their hospitality.
Daniel Brown, Esq., is reported to be in feeble health.
The cornshop is expected to commence operation this week.
Georgia Ford of Portland has made a week-end visit to her father and aunt.
Elsie and Lena York visited for two weeks in Lewiston and attended the State Fair.
Joseph Perry and daughter Annie of Sweden were recently guests of Mrs. J. Frank Howard.
Harold Sleeper and family of Haverhill are visiting his brother, James D. Sleeper and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Crosby of Beverly, Mass., were recent guests of Oscar Brown for two weeks.
Alice Monroe went to Rumford, Saturday before last for term of school commenced Monday, Sept. 9.
The latest report of the condition of Frank Noble at St. Barnabas hospital was hopeful of ultimate recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Norcross of Fairview farm have been visited by friends from Worcester, Mass., as follows:—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hammond, Jr., Ella Hammond, George H. Foster, Ben B. Osborn.
The State election in this precinct was about the quietest ever. There was no noticeable excitement or partisan anxiety as to the result. Our citizens have sometime since declared their independence of close party ties and in some cases have a mind to go as they please.
Francis F. Dudley of Fitchburg, Mass., has been visiting the family of J. Frank Howard and other friends in his native town. Mr. Dudley has served 41 years as engineer on the Boston & Providence and Boston & Fitchburg railroads; and at the age of 58 is in excellent health and is apparently good for many years of active service.

Fryeburg.

Several people attended the Fair at Norway.

Mrs. George Hammond has been in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips have returned from New Hampshire.

Dr. Mattson and wife (Minnie Bradley) who spent the summer in Fryeburg, have returned to Philadelphia.

Nathan Sanborn, one of the smartest men in West Baldwin, was in this town recently looking after his lumber interests.

The corner lot, owned by the Masons, on Main and Portland streets was sold at public auction. Wallace Tarbox was the highest bidder.

W. O. Brown has papered Henry Anderson's new house, which is to be occupied by Mr. Gammons, who has the moving picture show.

Fryeburg is proud of its fine new sidewalks but to have them look at their best they require more care than the beaten paths of yore.

Edgar Booth, son of Mark Booth, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Johnson, Monday forenoon, Sept. 9. He has been ill a long time.

Sidney Curtis of Frankfort has returned home.

Clem Ward is still in the moth killing business.

A. E. Saunders has left for his home in Portsmouth.

Levi Johnson was severely injured by falling off a team.

Noah McDonald and wife have arrived in town from Conway.

The Fryeburg Fair will start Sept. 30 and last three days.

Thomas Charles can be seen on the grocer team owned by Chas. Harriman.

I. L. Osgood has a good amount of orders from his granite quarries, mostly Western orders.

Everything seems to be booming in town. The cornfactory is about to start with about one-third crop this year. Mr. Baxter has been in town looking over the situation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fox attended the Norway Fair.

Irma Wolfe has finished work at the Frye House.

Wm. Smart, Jr., and bride of Lewiston have been guests at M. M. Smart's.

Mrs. C. W. Fiske and daughters have gone to Boston where they will spend the winter.

J. Roy Bennett and bride of Lowell, Mass., have been guests at George Walker's.

Janie Garuther has gone to Burlington, Vt., where she will resume her teaching.

Mrs. Walter Billings and daughter Marjory have returned to their home in Bridgton.

C. C. Wadsworth and family have returned to their home in Boston after their few months sojourn in Fryeburg.

Edgar Booth, who has been ill a long time, passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Johnson, on Monday morning, Sept. 9.

GILEAD.

Mrs. J. W. Bennett has visited her daughter, Mildred in Portland.

Pres. A. J. Roberts of Colby college, his wife and the Penobscot, who have spent the summer here, have left town.

Notice of Foreclosure of Mortgage.

Whereas Sarah E. Gould of Brownfield in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, did, on the fifth day of December, A. D. 1907, by her mortgage deed of that date, duly executed by her and recorded in Oxford Western District Registry of Deeds in Book 51, Page 114, convey to one Joel E. Morrill of Conway in the County of Carroll and State of New Hampshire, one half interest in common and undivided of the so called "Timothy Anderson farm", situated in said Brownfield and therein described as bounded on the north by land of Fred Haley, on the east by land of Nathaniel Towle, on the south by the Conway road and on the west by land of Frank H. Parsons; and whereas the said Morrill, thereafter, on the fifth day of August, A. D. 1911, by his written assignment of that date, duly executed by him and recorded in said Registry in Book 51, Page 447, did assign to me, the subscriber, said mortgage and the debt thereby secured, for a valuable consideration by me paid to him therefor; And whereas the conditions of said mortgage have been broken, I therefore claim a foreclosure of the same in accordance with the statutes in such cases made and provided, by reason of the breach of the condition thereof.

Howe-Wheeler.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O. Howe on High street, Friday, Sept. 13th, at high noon, when their only daughter, Ethel May, was united in marriage with Dean Erastus Wheeler of Oakland, Rev. C. A. Hayden, D. D., of the Universalist church in Oakland, of which the groom is a member, performed the ceremony.
 Only the immediate relatives and intimate friends were present. Among them were Mr. Wheeler's father from Oakland and Miss Smith of Norway, a friend and associate teacher of the bride.
 The parlor was prettily decorated in green vine festooning with white aster with a white bell suspended under which the bride and groom stood. Other guests of sisters and gladioli were in profusion in both parlor and dining-room.
 The bride was becomingly gowned in white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of brides roses. She was educated in the public schools of West Paris, and South Paris high school, and has been a successful teacher in the public schools of Paris, Mechanic Falls and Oakland.
 Mr. Wheeler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wheeler of Oakland, and is engaged with his father in furniture and undertaking business. He is a graduate of Oakland high school. Both young people are held in the highest esteem in the communities in which they live and their many friends wish them no end of happiness and prosperity.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler started on their wedding journey in an automobile. Their announcement cards say that they will be "at home" in Oakland, where they are to reside, after Dec. 1st.

Lee Marston and family have moved to Norway.
 Lilla Young has gone to Farmington Normal school.
 Alice Barden has returned to Hebron to attend school.
 Laura Hill and Clara Bacon have gone to South Paris high school.
 Lucy Everett has returned to Gorham Normal school for another year.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Packard of Lisbon are visiting relatives here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Levi Shedd have moved into the rent over the postoffice.
 The Rebekahs are going to have a public supper in their hall Sept. 25th.
 John Porter and family have moved into their new home purchased of Dr. Roseman.
 Mrs. Melina Ball of Michigan is visiting her sister, Madam Ball, at Rev. D. A. Ball's.
 Mrs. F. J. Miles and daughter Zola of Gorham, N. H., visited friends here the first of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellingwood have been to New York on a visit to her daughter there.
 Arthur Flavin is home from "The Beeches" and is working for the Paris Manufacturing Co.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Ricker of Bristol, N. H., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ricker.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welcomes of Walham, Mass., have been visiting at W. W. Dunham's the past week.
 Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Leslie of Andover visited Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Wheeler last week and attended the fair.

Bertha Emmons has been spending a week or two vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Emmons.
 David Emmons has leased his blacksmith shop to Samuel R. Johnson, James Ripley of North Paris is assisting him with the job work. Mr. Johnson has had a new tin roofing put on it.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aldrich and daughter, Mrs. Ida Rowe, took an auto trip to Colchester, N. H., by way of Gratton, Notoch, Errol and Dixville Notch to visit Mr. Aldrich's uncle, William Aldrich, whom he had not seen for thirty years or more. They went on Saturday with Mr. McAllister of North Paris, returning Sunday by way of Litchfield and Gorham, N. H. They enjoyed the beautiful scenery which that trip afforded.

The ladies' social circle of the Free Baptist church are going to have their annual sale at Centennial Hall, Sept. 26. They have engaged Mary Ballis of Roxbury, Mass., who is an author and entertainer in monologues, pantomime, poem and story. She is endorsed as one of the most original on the platform today. She is coming to South Paris for an entertainment there and the circle feels quite pleased to be able to embrace this opportunity to present her to the people here.

The West Paris schools opened Monday with Allan Kenney of Boston, a Bates College student, for principal and he boards at H. K. Tuell's; Miss Hilgred of Old Orchard in the grammar grade, and boards at J. R. Tucker's; Rose Murphy of South Paris in the intermediate grade and boards at C. E. Chase's; and Edith Jordan of Bridgton has returned for the primary and boards at F. L. Willis'. A few other scholars are in school in the various districts to take up the high school work. Among them are Martha Porter from the Porter school and Miss Swift, daughter of Oscar Swift of Sumner. Miss Swift is boarding at H. W. Dunham's.

Mrs. Nelson Lapham, who has been very sick is now on the gain and able to sit up a half hour.
 Mrs. Alice Cross of Lewiston spent Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Yates.
 Daniel Knight of Illinois and Wesley Knight of Iowa made a very pleasant call and surprise on Dr. O. K. Yates and wife one day last week. They went west some 65 years or more ago as boys and have recently returned gray headed and as grateful as when they left home in their early childhood. They formerly lived with their father, Isaac Knight, well known at Locke's Mills and vicinity some 70 or 75 years ago and lived near neighbors to Dr. Tate's father, James Yates, the old miller at that time. They were schoolmates of the doctor. They say that while they are old landmarks of their boyhood days that look natural but the faces they meet are nearly all strangers with an occasional old man and woman that were children with them.

FRYEBURG.

Eben Fessenden.

Eben Fessenden, for many years a resident of Fryeburg, died at his home in Winthrop last Wednesday, aged 65 years.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fessenden went to Winthrop five years ago to care for the home of Mr. Fairbanks, his wife, who was Jennie Fessenden, having died. His body was buried in Fryeburg, Saturday.
 He leaves a widow, one grandchild, Ruth Fairbanks, one sister, Mrs. Millard Powers, who lives in the West and one brother, Augustus Fessenden of Fryeburg. Mr. Fessenden was a very nice man and highly esteemed.
 His widow is left comparatively alone. Mr. Fessenden had within a month purchased a house in Winthrop as Mr. Fairbanks was recently married again.

Sudden Death.
 The notice of the sudden death of Eben Fessenden in Winthrop, Thursday, came as a shock to friends and relatives. He visited Fryeburg three weeks ago and was then in good health. Mr. Fessenden's father was William Fessenden, his grandfather, Ebenezer Fessenden, who was one of the first settlers in the town of Fryeburg. Ebenezer was a brother of Rev. William Fessenden, a Harvard graduate, who was the first settled minister over the district of Fryeburg in 1775. These brothers came from Menotomy district in Cambridge, Mass., now known as Lexington. Wm. Pitt Fessenden was a direct descendant of Rev. Wm. Fessenden. For many years Mr. Fessenden lived on the home spot in Menotomy but left Fryeburg some years ago. The body was brought to Fryeburg, Saturday, and buried in the old cemetery.

All the schools in Fryeburg opened Sept. 17.
 Levi Johnson, who was injured by a fall, recovers, is out every day.
 L. S. Haley tax collector has an office at the store of Nathaniel Walker.
 Fryeburg fair this year will prove very attractive as there will be a flight by an aviator each day.
 Mrs. Lawrence and daughters, who have been boarding at Bradley B. Woodward's, East side, are now at Lyman Charles.

Charles Ladd was in Portland, Saturday. Other Portland visitors were W. R. Tarbox, E. E. Hastings, and several lady shoppers.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McKee attended the fair at Norway.
 S. C. McAllister of North Lovell visited at Mrs. J. C. Sawyer's, Sunday.
 Mrs. Jessie Adams has been suffering with a severe sore throat but is better now.
 The pouring rain we had Sunday night washed the roads badly in some places.
 Beryl McKee, who is teaching school in this district, is on the sick list with a severe cold.

Seth Harriman is getting along fine on his new house. We shall all be glad to welcome our new neighbors.
 Fred Warren has been working for Judge Stone the past week clearing up the grounds around his cottage.
 Mr. and Mrs. Willis Warren of North Lovell visited his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warren, Saturday and Sunday.
 David McAllister of North Lovell, who has been working for Mrs. L. A. Andrews has finished work and returned home and Lila McAllister of Lynchville has taken her place.

Potatoes that have been dug are reported as being a good yield. Blackberries have been plenty and very large and delicious but are about gone now. Some cold nights but no frost in this vicinity as yet and gardens are looking nice and green.

 Elizabeth Scribner has resumed her studies at Gorham Normal school.
 Howard Mains and family have moved to Oxford, where Mr. Mains has purchased a farm.
 N. C. Pinkham, who has been ill at the home of his daughter in Paris, has returned to his boarding place here.
 Louise Wright is attending high school in Gorham, N. H., and Donald Wright goes to South Paris for the fall term.

Fred Haskell of Lynn, Mass., has visited relatives in this place; Ethel Haskell and her friend, Miss Arthur.
 Bolster's Mills Packing Co. began operations at their shop last week. They have purchased husking machines for use this fall.
 The Ladies' Aid met Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Cummings, where they had a very pleasant afternoon. The hostess served ice cream and cake.
 All the houses in Bolster's Mills are occupied and more are needed to supply the demand. Bolster's Mills is a quiet, beautiful village, where people enjoy prosperity and plenty.

The last meeting of the W. G. T. U. was at the home of Mrs. Mabel J. Upton. An unusual number of visitors were present and the afternoon was passed on the spacious lawn, where ice cream, cake, plums and apples were served. There was a fine musical program and some readings.

SOUTH OTISFIELD.
 A. S. Ames is in very poor health. Elias Davis has been hauling corn for Deak Nutting.
 Yena Lombard is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eva Scribner.
 Frank Edwards is boarding at Fletcher Scribner's for a few weeks.
 Mabel Tenney had a present presented her, a white iron bedstead.
